BUY-AT-HOME

About four years ago an agent from another State sold a widow a monument guaranteed to be strictly first-class at a price 75 per cent above the price the home folks would have asked for a sure enough first-class job. Recently the same agent in showing a prospective customer some work in the cemetery called their attention to this job to show them how bad this job was and how much superior Lime Stone was than Barre Granite for monumental purposes. Now as a matter of fact there is not a monumental association or an honest dealer in the world that would recommend Lime Stone for a monument and the Woodmen of the World, who put up thousands every year, will not allow one to be put to a member's grave. The above is about the sample of the deal you get when you buy from people who have no interest in you or your town. Buy at home. McCLARD & ARMSTRONG.

DEATH OF MRS. LOFTHOUSE.

The wife of Mr. Charles Loft-house, who resides in Concord precinct, died at an early hour Sunday morning of arterio sclerosis, followed by apoplexy. She was a native of Virginia and was 80 years old. The interment took place in the Boyd burying ground near Kelly, Friday afternoon.

PRINCESS TODAY.

Gladys Brockwell—but the one that we have to announce now is by far the most interesting that this brilliant actress has ever had. The new drama is "The Devil's Wheel" and it possesses a story that cannot help but thrill you, and the star's work in it is simply fascinating.

Can you imagine a woman, simple, innocent, and charming, receiving an injury that causes her not only to forget her own life, name and people, but also making her a ferocious and dangerous woman? In this new sphere she finds the real love of her life and she gains happiness in spite of her vicious surroundings.

REX TO-DAY.

Once more the prime little favorite, Viola Dana, comes forward with her never-failing appeal in a wonder-play. This time it is "Aladdin's Other Lamp," an elaboration of a play by that prince of storytellers, Willard Mack, author of "Kick In." June Mathis made the screen version, and no one knows better than Miss Mathis how to write a scenario. John H. Collins, director, and John Arnold, cameraman, are the winning team who prepared this masterpiece for the consideration of the public. "Aladdin's Other Lamp" appeals to the imagination.

REX TO-MORROW.

The most celebrated woman in the world for her first screen appearance Mary Garden in "Thais," from the famous novel by Anatole France. The story of the saint who became a sinner and the sinner who became a saint.

Things you ought to know about "Thais":

1. An internationally famous story by the foremost living French novelist.
2. Mary Garden's first operatic prima donna role in America. It marks her screen debut in motion pictures.
3. A story of passion that has been translated into eighteen languages.
4. Obtained from the author for screen purposes only because Mary Garden appears in it.

PRESIDENT OF BETHEL

Brilliant Young Woman of This City Is At the Head of Bethel Woman's College.

The Courier-Journal of Sunday contained this reference to the new President of Bethel Woman's College: "Miss Clara Belle Thompson, who was recently unanimously elected president of the Bethel Woman's College, Hopkinsville, Ky., was graduated with honors at the Louisville Girls' High School and later at Georgetown and Bryn Mawr colleges. She is a leader in club work, being an Eastern Star officer, and in patriotic lines has served as treasurer of the Navy League, and also as instructor in the Red Cross surgical dressings.

Miss Thompson is the daughter of the Rev. C. M. Thompson, former editor of the Western Recorder and moderator of the General Association of Baptists in Kentucky. At one time Dr. Thompson was a Louisville pastor, at Tabernacle Baptist church; also he led in founding a mission which afterward became Third-avenue Baptist church."
